Dear Sirs:

Will you kindly take away the decorations from the front of this building tomorrow, and greatly oblige,

Yours truly

Director.

October 13, 1909.

Messrs. Annin & Co.,
Fulton & William Streets,
New York.

Dear Sirs:

When your man put up the decorations on the front of this building, he promised to remove them as soon as the celebration should be over.

The celebration ended on the 9th, and this is the 13th, and the decorations are not removed.

I hope you will give this your immediate attention.

Yours truly

New York.

Attention of Mr. Birdsall.

Dear Sir:-

I beg to acknowledge receipt of yours of the 26th estimating on the cost of two flags with necessary adjustments. We should like to suggest that the screws to be used in putting up these poles be galvanized in order that there may be no rusting and discoloration of the concrete in which wooden sockets will rest. In all other respects the estimate is entirely satisfactory, and we should be pleased to have you deliver and erect the flags at your earliest convenience.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

Dear Sirs:-

Referring to your order No. C-76513 CF, may I enquire whether the extension of the last item on your invoice is correct? Your two men were engaged in erecting these two poles about one hour, which leads me to think that it is possible that your charge should have been extended as four dollars rather than eight.

Awaiting your reply, I am,

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

Gentlemen:-

We have your letter of the 18th, and in answer to same we beg to say that the price $4.00 per pole is the price we quoted you for putting these up. Of course in figuring time, you have to take into consideration the time it takes the men from when they leave the yard until they report back to the yard. The charge is correct.
